Re: Motion to Reopen/Reconsider
File Number: [REDACTED]
Petitioner: [REDACTED]
Beneficiary: [REDACTED]
Attorney: Gurbreena Singh Khunkhun

Discussion: On or about February 1, 2016, the petitioner filed a Notice of Appeal or Motion (Form I-290B) seeking a motion to reopen and reconsider the denial of the Petition for Alien Relative (Form I-130) filed on behalf of [REDACTED]. The petition was denied on November 10, 2009, because the petitioner failed to respond to a Notice of Intent to Deny (NOID).

In connection with the motion, you indicated that the NOID and denial were sent to an incorrect address. Upon review of the record, USCIS will treat the untimely filed motion as a Service motion to reopen pursuant to 8 CFR 103.5.

What the Official Notice Said

The above petition has been approved. As the petitioner requests, we have sent the petition to the U.S. Department of State National Visa Center (NVC), 32 Rochester Avenue, Portsmouth, NH 03801-2909. The NVC processes all approved immigrant visa petitions that need consular action. It also determines which consular post is the appropriate consulate to complete visa processing. The NVC will then forward the approved petition to that consulate.

The NVC will contact the beneficiary of this petition with further information about immigrant visa processing steps.

You should allow a minimum of 30 days for U.S. Department of State processing before contacting the NVC. If you have not received any correspondence from the NVC within 30 days, you may contact the NVC by e-mail at NVCINQUIRY@state.gov. You will need to enter the USCIS receipt number from this approval notice in the subject line. In order to receive information about your petition, you will need to include in the body of the e-mail your name and date of birth, and the Applicant's (beneficiary's) name and date of birth.

THIS FORM IS NOT A VISA AND MAY NOT BE USED IN PLACE OF A VISA.

The approval of this visa petition does not in itself grant any immigration status and does not guarantee that the alien beneficiary will subsequently be found to be eligible for a visa, for admission to the United States, or for an extension, change, or adjustment of status.

NOTICE: Although this application or petition has been approved, USCIS and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security reserve the right to verify this information before and/or after making a decision on your case so we can ensure that you have complied with applicable laws, rules, regulations, and other legal authorities. We may review public information and records, contact others by mail, the internet or phone, conduct site inspections of businesses and residences, or use other methods of verification. We will use the information obtained to determine whether you are eligible for the benefit you seek. If we find any derogatory information, we will follow the law in determining whether to provide you (and the legal representative listed on your Form G-28, if you submitted one) an opportunity to address that information before we make a formal decision on your case or start proceedings.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.
